Paheko means “combination” in the Maori language. Essential yet non-simplified volumes, cross-references to well-known shapes, seen and recorded in our memories as archetypes of vases, columns, and capitals. These objects stand out almost undefined for their usage, therefore completely free to suggest different purposes reinterpreted from time to time.

Put a book on it nearby a bed and it will become a nightstand; a cocktail by a pool will make it an outdoor table; inside the house or in a bathroom it could turn into a stool, while in a restaurant or café it could serve as a bag holder.

The shape changes capsized, blends with the environment. Its volumes offer the coordinated harmony of an object that is somehow out of trends, mixing the neoclassical 1980's style with the minimalistic design of the XXI century. The top and bottom parts of PaHeKo can be mix and match, and the joint ring is available in five colours options. All these variations allow you to create up to thirty different combinations.

Made of polypropylene, lightweight yet extremely sturdy, it can be used both indoor and outdoor in several ways. Actually, in just about every way that imagination or need will suggest.
